MEMORANDUM FOR All III Corps and Fort Hood Commanders and Leaders

SUBJECT: Registration Requirement for Privately-Owned Firearms (POF's)

1. APPLICABILITY. This policy applies to all III Corps and Fort Hood Service Members and their dependents who enter Fort Hood. This policy applies to all major subordinate commanders, units, and tenant activities across the Fort Hood Military Reservation.
2. STATEMENT OF MILITARY PURPOSE AND NECESSITY. The safety of the Service Members, civilians, and Families who live and work on Fort Hood is a primary concern of III Corps and Fort Hood Command. To continue to ensure the safety and security of the installation and to help prevent accidents or incidents that could cause serious injury or death to our Service Members, civilians, and Families, III Corps and Fort Hood Command requires awareness of POF's stored or brought onto the installation.
3. POLICY.
 - a. This Policy and Fort Hood Regulation 190-11 require all Service Members and their dependents living, residing, or temporarily staying on Fort Hood to register any POF's kept on post with the Directorate of Emergency Services (DES). Service Members living in the barracks or in post temporary housing must notify their immediate Commander of the possession of POF's, and keep the POF in their respective unit arms rooms IAW AR 190-11 and Fort Hood Regulation 190-11. All Service Members and their dependents living, residing, or temporarily staying on Fort Hood will immediately notify DES of any sale, purchase, trade, gift, exchange, or any other action that changes the ownership of a POF kept on post.
 - b. All persons, whether Service Member or civilian, who intend to transport a POF onto Fort Hood must first register that firearm with DES. POF's being transported onto Fort Hood will at all times be accompanied by post registration documentation and are subject to inspection. All persons bringing a POF onto Fort Hood must enter through an Access Control Point (ACP), declare that they are bringing a POF on post and state the purpose for doing so to ACP personnel. Persons may be prevented from bringing an unregistered POF on post.
 - c. The registration of POF's is a tool that enables Commanders and their subordinates the means to protect Service Members and civilians from accidents or incidents that could cause serious injury or death. Commanders have the authority to order Service Members living on post to store any POF's kept on post in the unit arms room IAW the requirements of AR 190-11 and Fort Hood Regulation 190-11.
 - d. Effective immediately, collecting or recording any information relating to the otherwise lawful acquisition, possession, ownership, carrying or other use of privately owned firearm,
